NATIONAL LAND TRANSPORT AUTHORITY

Updated Policies

The NLTA wishes to remind the public on updated policies which was communicated to the public through the websites of the NLTA and the Government Information Services (GIS) on 15 November 2023.

Hence, following the proclamation of the Road Traffic (Amendment) Act 2023, with effect from 21 August 2023, policies relating to the issue, transfer and implementation of Public Service Vehicle Licences, Road Service Licence, “A” & “B” Carriers Licences and Petrol Service Station Licences have been updated.

The policy for operation and replacement of vehicles under a Public Service Vehicle or Carrier Licence has as well been updated.

The abovementioned Policy documents are available on the NLTA website of the NLTA at nlta.govmu.org for consultation by the public for any information they may require.
