ALLEGATIONS REGARDING MISALLOCATION OF RESPONSIBILITY ALLOWANCES

Allegations regarding the misallocation of responsibility allowances at MASA have been brought in the National Assembly and in the press.

Following an investigation conducted by the Police and the Independent Commission Against Corruption, MASA has been informed by these competent authorities that there are no elements to substantiate these allegations.

The allowances paid to our senior employees were duly approved by the Board during the year 2019 in accordance with the prescribed rates.

MASA wishes to re-affirm its commitment to the principles of good governance and transparency.
