

National Computer Board

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST “Freelance ICT Trainers”

The National Computer Board (NCB), operating under the aegis of the Ministry of Information Technology, Communication and Innovation, is mandated inter alia for promoting nationwide Digital Literacy through face-to-face, online learning and mixed mode training at different levels.

The NCB is inviting Expression of Interest from candidates possessing the required qualifications and experience who wish to form part of a Pool of Freelance ICT Trainers to deliver trainings in Digital Literacy/ Proficiency.

Candidates should:

- a) be a degree holder in ICT/ ICT-related fields from a recognised institution or hold an equivalent qualification acceptable to the Board.
- b) reckon at least one year of working experience in teaching/ training or in the field of IT
- c) be willing to work after office hours and during week-ends.
- d) submit copies of NIC, academic & professional certificates and previous employment testimonials when registering online; and
- e) If selected, produce evidence of their ‘Certificate of Character’ prior to delivery of training.

Duties and Requisites: Details of eligibility requisites, duties and remuneration are available on NCB website at <https://ncb.govmu.org/vacancies.html>

Mode of Registration: Interested Candidates are requested to Register Online on NCB website.

Note: Candidates who have registered previously as Freelance ICT Trainer are requested to submit fresh application.

Closing Date: 17 February 2023.

The National Computer Board reserves the rights:

- (i) to call for interview only the best qualified candidates when their services are required; and
- (ii) not to call any applicant for services following this advertisement

27 January 2023