

WE ARE HIRING !

MAURICE STRATÉGIE

Maurice Stratégie is the research and planning bureau of the government with the objectives of developing short and long term plans, undertaking in-depth economic research and analysis to support policy choices; driving public debate and providing recommendations to support collective choices on social, economic and environmental issues; and evaluating government policies.

VACANCY : RESEARCHERS

The organisation is looking for highly motivated and dynamic Researchers with a passion for analysis, research and a strong drive towards producing insights that will help towards shape strategic decisions. The candidate will be responsible for conducting advanced research across various economic, social and environmental fields to support policy decisions.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Lead and execute research projects
- Develop and apply advanced research methodologies, including qualitative and quantitative analysis to generate insights
- Conduct advanced analysis to support research objectives
- Analyse existing policies and recommend evidence-based proposals
- Identify critical policy issues and prioritise research efforts towards recommendations of new policy proposals
- Translate research findings into policy recommendations and strategies
- Manage and analyse large data using statistical software
- Ensure data integrity and accuracy throughout research process
- Prepare detailed reports, policy briefs and presentations to communicate research findings
- Publish research findings
- Present research outcomes to diverse audiences
- Contribute to Maurice Stratégie knowledge sharing initiatives through webinars, social media and other communication channels

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

PhD in Economics, Environmental Studies, Social Sciences or related fields is required.

MODE OF APPLICATION

Applications should be submitted on hremauricestrategie.org at latest by Thursday 19 September 2024 at 17h00. Only candidates with the best profile will be convened for interviews.

Maurice Stratégie reserves the right not to make any appointment following this advertisement.