Call for bids

The British High Commission is pleased to invite proposals for projects in Mauritius and Rodrigues in the following areas:

- Women and girls - Provide women and girls with the support they need to succeed, unlocking their potential, supporting their empowerment and protecting them against violence
- Climate and Nature - Reduce global emissions, build resilience, and halt and reverse the loss of biodiversity
- Good Governance - Supporting sustainable long-term development including good governance and democracy
- Sustainable economic development including trade facilitation
- Global Health – Supporting resilience and the reduction of social and economic impacts of health threats

We invite proposals from non-profit organisations, academic institutions, multilateral partners and government entities.

Funding will be up to MUR 850,000 per project. Activities should be completed by end of January 2023.

Applicants are invited to submit proposals using the project proposal form and activity-based budget template available International Programme Fund - call for bids 2022-23 - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\)

All necessary instructions are provided on International Programme Fund - call for bids 2022-23 - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\)

Short-listed applicants will be asked to sign an agreement with the High Commission and commit to reporting requirements agreed between both parties.

Projects should not generate a profit for the implementers.

Deadline: 4 pm on 10 August 2022
