MINISTRY OF LAND TRANSPORT AND LIGHT RAIL

Payment of one-off Allowance of Rs10, 000/- to Individual Contract Bus Operators licensed to convey tourists

The Ministry of Land Transport and Light Rail wishes to inform individual contract bus operators licensed to convey tourists that Government has approved the payment of a one-off allowance of Rs10, 000 to each of the holders of such contract bus licences.

This allowance which is to be funded under the COVID-19 Solidarity Fund will be payable to those individual contract bus operators licensed to convey tourists who;

- A. are eligible for payment of allowance under the Self-Employed Assistance Scheme; and
- B. are registered with the Mauritius Revenue Authority under the Contribution Sociale Généralisée.

In order to assist this Ministry and the National Land Transport Authority to ensure prompt payment of the one-off allowance, you are requested to email a scanned copy of your National Identity Card and your Public Service Vehicle Licence to the NLTA on nta@govmu.org by Friday 19 November 2021.

The Ministry of Land Transport and Light Rail relies on the usual cooperation of the individual contract bus operators.
