RECRUITMENT OF ASSISTANT PERMANENT SECRETARIES

PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE

Following an online article regarding the recent recruitment of Assistant Permanent Secretaries (APS), the Public Service Commission (PSC) wishes to inform the public that the post of APS is filled by way of a selection exercise in compliance with the prescribed Scheme of Service. The post was advertised through Public Advertisement No. 62 of 2018 and PSC Circular Note No. 42 of 2018, issued in August 2018.

According to the requirements of the Scheme of Service, Public officers (e.g Human Resource Executives, Office Management Assistants, etc) and non-Public Officers, holding a degree are eligible to apply for the post.

A written examination was conducted by the PSC and the successful candidates were convened for an interview during the months of September and October 2019. Candidates, who were found suitable during the interview, were offered appointment as APS.
